

English

Children will be reading: Fox by Margaret Wild and Ron Brooks.

They will be writing:

- a poem
- a persuasive letter
- a non-chronological report

Maths

Children will be learning about:

- Addition and subtraction, numbers up to 1000.

Science

Children will be:

- Learning about the human skeleton and understanding which parts are responsible for movement, protection and support.

Computing

Children will be:

- learning how to stay safe online
- learning how to use a search engine safely

History

Children will be learning about predators over time and how they have adapted to survive.

Our Autumn 1

Power of Reading Text:

Fox

Theme: Predators

Geography

Children will be exploring where different predators live.

Music

Children will learn how to use voices and musical instruments.

P.E

Swimming
Gymnastics

DT

Children will be designing and making wings for Magpie.

R.E

Hinduism

PSHE

Protective
Behaviours

Our Trip

A visit from Zoolab.

Key Animations

Purple Mash -
2Code to understand algorithms

End Product

Children will spend the day meeting predators up close.