Update

This term continues to move at 100mph and we edge ever closer to the end of term. This week has seen the additional complication of the boiler breaking in school. We are in the process of having new ones but typically they broke just when we needed them most. Without hot water, we are unable to maintain appropriate hand hygiene in school. This is essential at this time so we have had to take the decision to close. Hopefully the boiler can be fixed this afternoon and we will reopen on Monday. If this is not the case, we will let you know the plans as soon as we have them.

This coming week sees the start of our Zoom meetings. I know the staff are eager to see the children again so please try to join in. It is important that you adhere to the time you have been allocated.

We are also going to be starting the transition into school of our new reception children. The current situation has made it slightly more difficult but we are using technology to try and share as much information as we can. The first zoom meetings start this week. It will be lovely to see our new intake even if it is in a virtual world.

We have emailed out the class allocations so if you haven't received it, please check your junk folder. We will be looking to use email more next year as we look to become a paperless school so please add school as a trusted contact so that you receive all emails from school.

I hope you are all well and look forward to seeing you all soon.

Executive Head

Zoom Meetings - Goodbye

This week, Zoom meetings will begin. This is a way for staff and children to catch-up and say good-bye. The date of your child's Zoom meeting is in the table below. The link and password have already been sent via email, so please contact the office if you are unable to find it.

Next week, we will send another Zoom meeting link to your email, inviting your child to meet their new teacher and teaching assistant.
