Dear Parents,

Summer Homework Project

Just like that, the end of the academic year is upon us! We have had yet another fun filled year and the children have worked their socks off.

Here at Dordon we have been pondering the annual Summer Homework Project and we came across this fantastic list - 50 Things To Do This Summer and thought it would be perfect.

We challenge each family to do as many things as they can from the list and document it by taking photographs. We would love you to share your photographs in the first week back and then we intend to display your adventures around school.

We are really looking forward to seeing what you get up to and of course staff will share their summer escapades too.

Have a wonderful summer Dordon!

Yours sincerely,

Miss McGroarty
Associate Headteacher
