

House Competition

Autumn 2

We are proud to announce our new House names follow the theme of:

Explorers!

Yellow House is now called: Earhart (Amelia Earhart – the first woman to fly solo across the Atlantic Ocean)

Red House is now called: Attenborough (David Attenborough – explorer of the natural world and best known for his documentary work)

Blue House is now called: Fiennes (Ranulph Fiennes - the first man to cross the Antarctica from one side to the other, via the pole, on foot)

Green House is now called: Hillary (Edmund Hillary – First to climb Mount Everest)

Our new House Competition

We challenge you to find out about the explorer who is representing your House. Once you have researched the explorer you are free to share your information however you like:

- A poster
- A newspaper article
- A poem about their adventures
- A factfile
- Artwork of an adventure they have undertaken
- Collage of photographs

All entries must be handed in to your class teacher by Friday 6th December.

Do not forget to add your details (name, class and House) on the back of your entry.

The winning entry will receive a book token worth £10 and five House tokens

Second and third prize winners will receive a £5 book token and three House tokens

All other entries will win one House token for their team!
